

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

July 29, 1965

Dear Admiral:

I thank you for your very fine letter of July 19 and the spirit in which it is written. Your approach to the job is what I expected of you and is a source of strength for me.

You know it is my hope that we can continue to build and strengthen the effectiveness of the Agency, making full utilization of the imaginative talent assembled in the organization. I hope the appointment of [redacted] [redacted] will serve to assure and encourage all your employees to realize that their personal abilities and superior performance do not go unnoticed or unrecognized.
